Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claim(s) 1 and 19 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the pertinent prior art of record, such as U.S. Publication No. 2001/0055022, U.S. Patent No. 5396464, do not teach or suggest, a semiconductor device, exchanging a data series with an exterior of the device, comprising: a register which stores a first data item of said data series, the first data item immediately preceding a second data item of said data series; and an exchange circuit which exchanges with the exterior of the device a signal indicative of which bit or bits of the first data item are to be inverted to convert the first data item into the second data item, the exchanging of the signal effectively achieving the exchanging of the data series, as in at least claim 1; said pertinent prior art of record does not teach or suggest a method for exchanging a data series with an exterior of the device, comprising: a step of storing a first data item of said data series, the first data item immediately preceding a second data item of said data series; and a step of exchanging with the exterior of the device a signal indicative of which bit or bits of the first data item are to be inverted to convert the first data item into the second data item, the exchanging of the signal effectively achieving the exchanging of the data series, as in at least claim 19.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

3. Claim(s) 2-18 and 20-22 depend from independent claims 1 and 19 and as such are therefore allowed for at least the same reasons as set forth above.
